“The new Hilton Hotel in Victoria Place, Woking, opened on 31 October 2024, which is good news. It is a very high-quality hotel development that will hopefully be massively successful.

Question: How much of the £760m spent on the Victoria Place development did Woking Borough Council or associated companies spend on the Hilton Hotel development, including fixtures, fittings, and any other expenditure per opening?

Question: How much income does Woking Borough Council or associated companies expect to receive in FY24/25 and each financial year for the next five years from the Hilton Hotel?”
